Introduction of USDA OCIO Enterprise Applications Services Office

- EAS Director, Chris North
  - EAS History
  - Geospatial in EAS "as is"
  - Geospatial in EAS "to be"

Update of Geospatial Projects & Activities In EAS Operations

- ESRI ELA COR

    - Transfer to OCIO EAS
    - Sending out letters soon regarding 1st Qtr Agency Payments
    - Preparation for 2013 contract
    - Esri Secured Support
        - New offering via existing ELA
        - Handling sensitive data support calls
        - Elevated support directly to Tier 2 when necessary
        - USDA assigns 3 POCs as liason to ESRI Technical Acct Mgr

Portal Technologies

- GeoPortal for Server
  - National Geospatial Platform
  - Metadata driven

- Portal for ArcGIS
  - On-premise capabilities
  - Data discovery and web map serving and "mash up"

- ArcGIS Online for Organizations (Premium)
  - Multi-tenant (beta now)
  - More functionality
  - No on-premise offering
  - Esri provides hosting & software service

USDA Community Analyst and Business Analyst Environment
- Working towards On-premise platform
- Processing USDA datasets into the software environment
  - Currently related to Renewable Energy
  - Along with the Esri Business Analyst data: demographics, Sales, market, Tapestry, etc

USDA Renewable Energy Web Maps
- Using Esri ArcGIS.com web mapping and managed services
- Displays USDA Renewable Energy Investments

NRCS Support for Hosting/Serving CDSI Easement data
- Working towards an enterprise hosting service for geospatial data
- Establish an easier point of entry for Agency if they need ability to house and serve out to applications